Tropical Bure with outdoor shower and Jacuzzi

(last updated Aug 2014)

Your Tropical Bure (pr: boo-ray and Fijian for house) has a private bedroom with generous king bed and French doors opening to your sundeck with Fiji Day Bed. The spacious lounge room has mini bar, refrigerator, tea and coffee making facilities and lounge furniture. The modern bathroom is tropically designed with inside bath and shower, bath products, hair dryer, cupboards and safe. The outdoor shower and Jacuzzi in the private lush garden is a Fiji essential. Your Bure is fan cooled with ceiling fans in the bedroom and lounge room.

The Bures were built in 2006 / 2007 with local coconut & rain tree woods, the sun deck is made from local river stones with the outer walls made of local coconut timber hand cut by the village Talatala (Priest).

The indoor wooden fittings have been hand crafted from coconut woods and the furniture is mostly locally crafted with rain tree and coconut woods. The artefacts you see throughout the bure are hand made by the local village craftsmen.

The ceiling above you is thatched traditionally by the men of the neighbouring Vuna Village with coconut wood, magi magi (Fijian rope) & coconut leaves woven & secured to the wooden beams. You may notice how cool it is inside your bure. The traditional method of thatching ensures protection from rain, sun & heat.

To build the new bures only select trees were used, so as not to disturb the fragile ecosystem of the area surrounding Paradise.

Paradise Taveuni is the perfect destination for Honeymooners, families, small groups and individual travellers searching for a lost culture in a mystical land. Experience Paradise soon.
